

ALEJANDRA MORALES
alejandramorales22@knights.ucf.edu

OBJECTIVE

To observe and analyze the level of trust humans have in robotics as a psychology research assistant in the MIT2 Laboratory at the University of Central Florida

EDUCATION

University of Central Florida (UCF)
B.S. Biomedical Sciences
Minor in Psychology

Anticipated Graduate Date
December 2018

RELEVANT COURSEWORK

EXP3604 Cognitive Psychology

- Theory and research on attention, memory, complex learning, and problem solving

PHI3320 Philosophy of Mind

- Mind-body problem, problem of other minds (non-human animals, and machines intelligence) and minds and brains (materialism and reducibility, the role of psychology and neuroscience)

CAMPUS INVOLVEMENT

Global Medical Brigades

Volunteering Director

- Organize multiple events throughout the semester to encourage volunteering and involvement within the community
- Book volunteer events at Give Kids the World, Shepherd's Hope and participate in Sunday Knight Food Share's in Downtown Orlando

2014-Present

2015-Present

Phi Delta Epsilon, International Medical Fraternity

Vice President of Membership

- Responsible for the retention and recruitment of pre-medical students with the intent of becoming future a future MD or DO
- Offer academic/medical related workshops to the organization

2014-2016

Spring 2016

Membership Committee Head

- Organize and plan out the Fall 2015 recruitment
- Responsible for handing bids to potential new members

2014-2015

Knight-Thon

Dancer Relations Coordinator

- Communicate with RSO's and Greek organizations to promote involvement and awareness of the Children's Miracle Network
- Raised over $1,000,000 as a school, with a goal of $820,000 for the year

2015-2016

Student Body President's Advisory Council

Member

- Mentorship program within the Executive branch of UCF's SGA program offered to 20 freshman students
- Participate in workshops to encourage leadership and student involvement as well as assist with SGA hosted events

2014-2015